In 2010, the organization took temporary stewardship of the Foster Grandparents Program (FGP). FGP's previous steward (the city of KCMO) was no longer able to support their program operations. WCS took in the program while FGP (a natural fit due to operational similarities to WCS's own SCP) sought permanent arrangements. WCS managed the program April - August 2010.

Form 990 Part VI, Line 5

In 2010, the organization became aware of diversion of assets by an employee. The diversion took place over 7 months, from October 2009 to May 2010. The assets diverted were cash, and potentially a few small dollar fixed assets. The total amount of diverted funds has been identified at $48,000, while insurance policies and bank settlements have offset $32,992, for a net loss of $15,000.

Form 990 Part VI, Line 11a

The final form 990 and required schedules are provided to the Executive Council of the WCS Board of Directors prior to filing with the IRS. The Executive Council, comprised of officers of the Board of Directors, review the report at its regular monthly meetings.

Form 990 Part VI, Line 12c

Annually, the members of the Board of Directors are required to review the Conflict of Interest Policy and sign a statement disclosing any known conflicts or that they are aware of no conflicts within the definition of the policy.

Form 990 Part VI, Line 19

WCS makes all such documents available to the public upon request at its office during regular business hours.

Form 990 Part XI, Line 2a-c

WCS has an audit conducted annually of the Statement of Financial Position ONLY. There is a finance committee that reviews the report and auditor's findings. "No" was selected on the 990 as an audit is not conducted for all of the financial statements of the organization due to cost restraints. The organization hopes to begin conducting complete audits starting with the 2011 fiscal year, finances permitting.

Form 990 Part XI, Line 5

As mentioned in a previous note on this schedule, WCS received funds offsetting some of the funds that were fraudulently diverted. $10,000 was received from a crime bond policy, and $22,922 was received as a settlement from a bank which set up the bank account through which funds were diverted without performing proper checks on the identification of the signers or the organizational documentation.

As these funds were not received through programs or business activities, they have been reported here as an adjustment to net assets.

The Back-to-School program is the last program WCS currently operates. This program provides 400 children of low income households with school uniforms, under clothing, backpacks filled with school supplies, a new pair of shoes and a complete health screening including vision, hearing and dental. In addition, parents and guardians of these children are connected with other community services.
